

CHAPTER 3-7 CIVIL INFRACTIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

3-7-1 Duties and Authority of Officers; Warrants not Required

(a) It shall be the duty of tribal law enforcement officers to enforce the provisions of this Chapter without the necessity of procuring a warrant.

(b) A tribal law enforcement officer is authorized to arrest any person who resists, delays, prevents or obstructs any such officer in the discharge of, or attempt to discharge, any duty under this Chapter or who gives a false report to any peace officer. Any person who is subject to the criminal laws of the Tribes and who is arrested under this section shall be guilty of a Class C offense and may be prosecuted pursuant to the criminal provisions of this Code. To the extent authorized by law, any person who is not subject to the criminal laws of the Tribes and who is arrested under this section may be transported without unnecessary delay to the nearest authority for the State of Washington or the United States.

(c) The Commission of any offense under this Chapter may result in criminal and/or civil penalties as outlined in this Code and the liquidated damages schedule approved by the Colville Business Council. A civil citation or criminal penalty pursuant to this Chapter does not preclude or prevent additional penalties from being assessed pursuant to other Chapters of this Code.

(Amended 02/08/22, Resolution 2022-074, Certified 03/10/2022)

3-7-2 Definitions

As used in this Chapter:

(a) "Defendant" means the person against whom an action is filed under this Chapter.

(b) "Infraction" means a civil offense in which the remedy involved is liquidated damages which have been pre-determined by the Business Council as provided by the infractions procedures in this Code. An infraction is not a crime and the punishment shall not affect or impair the credibility of a witness or otherwise of any person convicted thereof.

(c) "Litter" means all waste material including but not limited to disposable packages or containers thrown or deposited as herein prohibited but not including the wastes of the primary processes of mining, logging, sawmilling, farming, or manufacturing.

(d) "Public" means a location to which the public or a substantial group has access or those individuals present in such location. A public place includes, but is not limited to; highways, transport facilities, schools, prisons, apartment houses, places of business or amusement, or any neighborhood.

OFFENSES

Property

3-7-30 Trespass

A person commits the infraction of trespass if he:

(a) Enters upon the real property of another that is posted to prohibit trespassing, is fenced or contains obvious outward signs of habitability without permission of the owner or the owner's agent;

(b) Enters tribal lands that are not specifically posted as open to the public;

(c) Being a non-tribal member he enters or remains on a huckleberry patch unless he has the authority of the Business Council or he is the spouse or descendant of a tribal member of his immediate family and is accompanied by such member;

(d) Refuses to depart from or re-enters the Colville Reservation in violation of an order of exclusion issued by the Tribal Court as provided by this Code.

(e) If the person being charged is subject to the criminal laws of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, Trespass is a class C offense. Trespass may result in criminal penalties, civil penalties, or both.

(f) A tribal law enforcement officer may issue a criminal citation, a civil citation, or both for Trespass. In addition, at the time of charging, the Tribes' Prosecutor's Office may also request an order from the Court that any property not affixed to the land, including any vehicle(s), manufactured home(s), or mobile home(s) under Chapter 6-14 of this Code, may be removed pursuant to the following conditions:

(1) If it is a first offense within twelve (12) months (regardless of location), all property must be removed by the person charged within 72 hours of the Court's order. If the property is not removed within 72 hours, the Tribes may dispose of the property without any further legal action being required.

(2) If it is a second offense within twelve (12) months (regardless of location), all property must be removed by the person charged within 48 hours. If the property is not removed within 48 hours, the Tribes may dispose of the property without any further legal action being required.

(3) If it is a third offense, or more, within twelve (12) months (regardless of location), all property will be deemed abandoned and solid waste, and the Tribes may dispose of the property immediately without further legal action being required.

(g) The Court is authorized to require that the Trespasser pay for any costs for the removal and/or disposal of any property not removed within the timeframes, outlined above, in addition to any other criminal or civil penalties. The Tribes is not required to seek a separate order to recover such costs.

(Amended 02/08/22, Resolution 2022-074, Certified 03/10/2022)

3-7-31 Vandalism

A person commits the infraction of vandalism if he:

(a) Injures, defaces, damages or destroys:

(1) Private property in which any other person has an interest without the consent of such other person;

(2) Tribal or other property without the lawful consent of the appropriate governing body; or

(3) An obvious place of burial.

(b) Deposits, throws, or propels any substance upon any highway, roadway, runway, or railroad track, or any vehicle while such vehicle is either in motion or stationary.

A person commits the infraction of false reporting if he initiates a false alarm or report which is transmitted to a fire department, law enforcement agency or other organization that responds to emergencies involving danger to life or property.

3-7-33 Use or Possession of Alcoholic Beverage at Community Centers

A person commits the infraction of use or possession of alcoholic beverage at community centers if he uses or possess alcoholic beverages on the premises of any of the District Community Centers.

3-7-34 Harassment

A person commits the infraction of harassment if:

(a) Without lawful authority, he, by words or conduct directed at another, threatens to:

- (1) Cause bodily injury in the future to any person;
- (2) Cause physical damage to the property of a person other than the actor;
- (3) Subject any person to physical confinement or restraint; or
- (4) Do any other act which is intended to substantially harm any person with respect to his or her physical or mental health or safety; and

(b) The person by words or conduct places the person threatened in reasonable fear that the threat will be carried out.

(Amended 7/3/02, Resolution 2002-409)

3-7-35

Cruelty to Animals

(a) A person commits the infraction of cruelty to animals if he:

- (1) Maliciously kills, maims or wounds any animal;
- (2) Overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, drink or shelter, cruelly beats, or mutilates or cruelly kills any animal;
- (3) Has custody of or is responsible for an animal and willfully subjects the animal to needless suffering or inflicts any unnecessary cruelty upon the animal;
- (4) Transports or carries any animal in a cruel and inhumane manner;
- (5) Causes any animal to fight of his amusement or betting or wagering, permits the same to be done on any premises or is present at such fight.

(b) It shall be a defense to a prosecution under this section if the actor was involved in an accepted veterinary practice or engaged in hunting or fishing in accordance with the provisions of this Code and his actions were not cruel or inhumane under the circumstances. The Court shall use a reasonableness standard when determining whether a defense exists under this subsection.

PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE

3-7-36

Public Nuisance

(a) A person commits a public nuisance infraction if without lawful authority to do so, he does any act or fails to do any duty, which act or omission either:

- (1) Unreasonably annoys, injures, or endangers the comfort, repose, health, or safety of three (3) or more persons;
- (2) Offends public decency;
- (3) Unlawfully interferes with, obstructs, or tends to obstruct, or render dangerous for passage, any lake, stream, canal, or basin, or any public park, square, street, highway, or road; or
- (4) In any way unreasonably renders three (3) or more persons insecure in life or the use of property.

(b) An act or omission to act which affects three (3) or more persons in the ways specified in this section is still a nuisance regardless that the extent of the annoyance or damage inflicted on the individuals is unequal.

(c) The presence of a lawful authority under this section need not be disproved by the Tribes but shall be presented as an affirmative defense.

(Amended 02/08/22, Resolution 2022-074, Certified 03/10/2022)
